

CALIFORNIA

Pathways to Teaching

Reach University transforms jobs into degrees and credentials. In partnership with Alternatives in Action, we offer affordable, on-the-job programs for individuals working in California public schools.

If you have...

...your Reach pathway to teaching will take a high school diploma

or equivalent

BA Liberal Studies
4 years

Intern/M.A.T.
2 years

30 transfer-level
college credits

BA Liberal Studies
3 years

Intern/M.A.T.
2 years

an associate's degree (any major)

BA Liberal Studies
2 years

a bachelor's degree

Intern/M.A.T.
2 years

Complete a free application at reach.edu

Reach University offers a job-embedded B.A. program for classified school employees, allowing them to earn credit for on-the-job experience and complete coursework via evening Zoom seminars for just $75/month after aid. The Intern*/M.A.T. program enables eligible bachelor's degree holders to teach full time while earning a preliminary credential and master's degree for $7,500 per year. The Teacher Induction Program* provides a two-year, mentor-supported Clear credential pathway for new teachers aligned to California standards, with annual tuition of $4,500.